COUNCIL OUTCOME INDICATORS

The Council's outcomes are our overall 10-year aspirations for the city. They were developed in response to the city and regional community outcomes processes and reflect the community aspirations set down in those processes.

The Council outcomes reflect areas of the city we are able to influence, whereas community outcomes reflect the community's overall aspirations including areas we have limited ability to influence (for example, affordability of public health services and diversity of the media).

The following indicators have been developed to assess achievement of our Council outcomes. Over time we expect to see improvement across all areas. The information provided below contributes to the 'Progress towards our outcomes' discussions found within each strategy section.

(We use some acronyms. GIS: Geographic Information Systems; PWT: Positively Wellington Tourism; LTNZ: Land Transport New Zealand; BERL: Business and Economic Research Ltd; TEC: Tertiary Education Commission.)
